Hi everyone, the pictures below say it all. Students were so pleased to be back exploring their new look library. It’s been a wonderful experience for all of us as we watch the students take ownership, explore their library space on another level - the communication, the sharing & looking out for each other has been positive. All part of fostering the good feelings that libraries, as a whole, are places to enjoy & places to find information whatever that may be. Explanation is that over the summer break the van Asch library has been transformed to accommodate the student’s needs. Students can now relax in warm inviting surroundings during their breaks and while having a bite to eat, they can choose an activity whether it is browsing, reading, watching, participating. Variety activities are available- newspaper, magazines, books, DVD signed stories, captioned movies, interactive CD Roms, board games, cards and so much more. Slide shows and interactive sites on the internet to come.

Moving on, I only have a few new fiction books to offer this issue along with the many periodicals that have arrived in since end of term last year. If there is an article of interest please let me know.

Keep watching the Intranet for a variety of postings. Check out the UC Education Plus site for professional development courses. JournalSurf access is also there.

I have had some families asking about access to this publication so I would appreciate if you would let your families know that they can always view and print off the Library Insider from the van Asch web site: www.vanasch.school.nz or ask them to contact me for a copy.

Happy Reading

FICTION - Picture Books

Butterflies in My Stomach and Other School Hazards
By Serge Bloch
Delightful story about a child’s feelings on the first day of school.

Hinemoa te toa
Tim Tipene & John Bennett
Delightful NZ book portraying the story of a grandparent and grandchild, (Maori and English versions).

The Cat with No Name
By Sher Foley & Brian Lovelock
A little cat’s adventures of finding food wherever he could – from restaurants until one day he went to a house and was given ‘proper cat food’ and what is more the family kept him.

Harry & Hopper
By Margaret Wild & Freya Blackwood
A very tender story demonstrating the shock grief when a young boy’s dog (who is his friend) dies suddenly.

Stick Man
By Julia Donaldson
Eventually saved by doing a good deed for Santa.

Pepetuna
By Denise Whitmore
Story of the native NZ Puriri moth or Ghost moth

Felix
By Pamela Allen
A perfect read aloud book.

NON-FICTION

Gallipoli Reckless Valour
By Nicolas Brasch
A picture book story telling of when the Australian and New Zealand soldiers landed at Gallipoli on 25 April 1915 of how bold and brave, loyal to their mates and daring in their fighting they were.

Qinghai Province – North East China.

FICTION - for the fluent reader

Target 4 Terror
by Carl Hubrick
When two boys and two girls go on holiday in the Southern Alps, they expect to explore the mountains. But on a hiking trip they come across a wounded man. A gripping story that takes the reader on a roller-coaster ride full of suspense, intrigue and fear. The text is well spaced so not over whelming. Also would be a great read-aloud chapter book as each chapter leaves you dangling.

Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of the Crystal Skull
(Graphic Book)
I have often mentioned “Many Questions” an initiative between the National Library and Public Librarians backed by the Ministry of Education- well now there is “Many Answers”. Well worth the look when searching for information – the question may have already been asked and the answer recorded! See National Library of New Zealand site.
